INTRODUCTION

This bibliography was compiled in response to a request for a list showing the extent of the files of current dairy periodicals in the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Only such publications as are on file either in the Library of the Department or in the Division of Agricultural Cooperation of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics have been included. The list includes periodicals devoted entirely or in part to dairying, organs of cooperative associations, and organs of private commercial firms.

In Part 3 of this list no attempt has been made to distinguish between periodicals which are primary sources and those which reissue prices.
